WAR NEWS IN BRIEF.

A message coming from Germany by a roundabout way states that the semi-official Wolff agency has announced that Germany has declared war

Both Austria and Italy have large armies along the frontier and it is ssumed the campaign will open up in this mountainous region. Italy also is said to have assembled an army on the southeastern coast of the country eross the Adriatic from Albania.

Official appouncement is made at Petrograd that the Austro-German forces, after sweeping across the western half of Galicia, have been checked. They are now said to have assumed the defensive. Constantinople advices say the French and British have landed 30,000 more men at the Dardanelles in addition to 60,000 disembarked originally. The Turkish Government announced the loss of an old gunboat, sunk by a The military situation in France and Belgium is unchanged. Reports from Holland and France say the Germans intend to fall back on their second line, for the purpose of shortening their front and releasing troops for service against Italy. Another German aeroplane of the Taube type flew over the northern suburb of Paris this morning and in its flight dropped several bombs. No person was injured by these projectiles. Count Qt Cellere, the Italian Ambassador, has formally notified the State Department at Washington of a state of war between Italy and Austria. President Wilson will issue another neutral proclamation later.

The private detective who came to court for additional subpoenas to day aid that there was the utmost difficulty in tracing any of the persons to whom they were addressed. Satisfady night, he said, seemed to have been a moving season for nearly all of the girl's acquaintances.

Cashier of the Gotham National Bank, Mr. Warner laughed and said:
"I suppose Ma Kelly hopes to show through him how Eugenia got that $3,000 or $4,000 it's claimed she has on deposit there. Of course, we have all heard the story that she borrowed it from Clarence Jones, but it is my opinion her financial affairs are her own private business and nobody's else concern." court for additional subpoenas to-day said that there was the utmost difficulty in tracing any of the persons to whom they were addressed. Saturday night, he said, seemed to have been a moving season for nearly all of the girl's acquaintances.

The man against whom the principal allegations of Mrs. Kelly and her lawyer, John F. McIntyre, were directed, Al Davis, has left his apartment at the Van Courtlandt Hotel, as has his friend and dancing partner, Miss Bonnie Giass. They left no address, but Mr. McIntyre said he would spare no pains to get Davis

Mrs. Kelly was as fond of me as I am of her.
"But," he went on, "Ma Kelly knew most of us, as I said. Why, the last time I saw her and Eugenia together I dined with them at Deimonico's and then went to the Horse Show. There in Mrs. Kelly's box was Al Davis. When I asked how he came there, I was told he had been invited by Mrs. Kelly. He was in the party when we had supper in Bostanoby's afterward.
